COURTSHIP BY CORRESPONDENCE

New Canadian Is New Bride As She Flies Across World To Marry

Happiest couple in Sidney now is undoubtedly Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Chan. They were recently married after an extended courtship by correspondence and are residing in their apartment above the Beacon Cafe where the bridegroom and his brother-in-law, Eddie Eng, are the proprietors.

The marriage united the son of a pioneer Victoria couple and perhaps the most recent immigrant to Canada.

Herbie Chan's father came to reside in Victoria about the turn of the century and spent all the rest of his life here. His bride came from China several years after he did. They were married in Victoria where the widowed Mrs. Chan still resides. Mrs. Eddie (Mary) Eng of Sidney is a daughter and Herbie, associated in the cafe business with Mr. Eng is her baby brother.

Herbie Chan, 35 years of age and now a resident of Sidney for about 15 years, won universal esteem in his adopted community by his quiet, gentlemanly greeting of the public and his co-operation in many community enterprises. He came to reside in Sidney after serving in the Canadian Army during the Second World War. He became an enthusiastic fisherman and spent many hours angling for trout in remote streams throughout British Columbia. But he was still lonesome.

So he wrote to relatives in Hong Kong. He has never seen China himself but considered that it might be a suitable country in which to look for a bride. The relatives did their part and soon the Sidney man was in correspondence with Miss Siu Ling, an employee of an amusement park similar to Disneyland. She was 26 years of age, her mother was living and she had one younger brother. She spoke not one word of English.

The proposal was shortly written and accepted. The fare was forwarded to Hong Kong and shortly the little girl, who had never before seen anything but her native province of Canton and the city of Hong Kong, was aboard a 1962 jet airliner, bound towards the Occident.

Siu played it very safe. Herbie's aunt resides in Hawaii so she arranged to visit the auntie for a few days. If this glimpse of the family didn't appeal to her, she could retrace her steps to Hong Kong and live in single blessedness. Auntie proved to be a good advertisement for Herbie, however, so she flew on to Patricia Bay where the prospective bridegroom met her. He then took her to the Victoria home of his mother, Mrs. Y. Chan, and the nuptials were arranged. They were married by a Victoria Chinese Presbyterian clergyman. Present were Herbie's mother and his sister with Mr. Eng and their family.

MR. AND MRS. HERBIE CHAN

These formalities over, Herbie whisked his bride away on an extended honeymoon by car. They drove to the Okanagan. It was a real Cinderella experience for the young lady. She likes Canada and she approves of marriage. She is learning English and has already mastered three or four words.

Meanwhile Herbie is acting as interpreter for her as friends call to extend their good wishes.

Beacon Project Starts

Roar of compressors and jack hammers on Beacon Ave. spelled the commencement of a street widening program launched by the village of Sidney on Monday.

Curbside and sidewalk on the north side of Beacon Ave. are being ripped out by contractors to provide for angle parking on both sides of the main street in the village.

Project was announced at the opening of the year by the village council.

Baseball Rained Out On Sunday

On May 6, Little League Baseball was scheduled to get under way on Saanich Peninsula, but rains greeted the opener and the start was postponed.

On Tuesday the A.N.A.F. Vets defeated the Legion Bombers, 11-7 in a hard-fought game.

Stan Collins pitched a good game for the Legion, while Keith Hannan was winning pitcher for the Vets. Norman Pearson, behind the plate, played a fine game for the Vets.

Sponsors are confident that the boys will shake off "the jitters" as teams get along in the schedules and the players settle down.

Little League sponsors have sounded a call early in the season for support for the youngsters. Spectators were few at the opening game.

Officer To Leave Sidney

Officer in charge of the Sidney detachment, R.C.M.P. Cpl. W. J. Stanton, will leave Sidney early in the summer.

Cpl. Stanton will be transferred shortly to Fort St. James, in the northern interior. His place will be taken by the officer in charge of the detachment north of Prince George.

The police officer has been stationed in Sidney for a number of years. He has been closely associated with many community projects and has served latterly as president of the North Saanich Rod and Gun Club.

Cpl. Stanton will be accompanied by his wife and three children to the northern interior.

SUBDIVISION PLAN GAINS APPROVAL

Plan for subdivision of property between Verdier Ave. and Stellas Cross Road, submitted to Central Saanich Council by A. Fleming has gained the approval of council.

Mr. Fleming will not have to construct Hagan Road between Verdier and Stellas—a condition council had previously stipulated. Last February, Mr. Fleming was told that his plan for subdivision would be acceptable if he agreed to pay 50 per cent of the cost of constructing the extension of Hagan Road. Mr. Fleming was not willing to do this.

Mr. Fleming will make six lots bordering on Verdier Ave. He does not plan on developing the rest of the property at this time.

Nine-Year-Old Artist

Carole Robinson, nine-year-old student at Brentwood school and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Robinson, Peden Lane, displays the painting which gained her the top award in the art show in Hotel Sidney on Saturday and Sunday.

SURPLUS FOOD STALL TO BE HELD SATURDAY

Next surplus food stall in Victoria will be held on Saturday, May 12. Surplus food stall co-ordinator, Mrs. E. E. Harper says that any contributions will be most welcome.

"The months of May and June are particularly difficult months," said Mrs. Harper, "as last year's vegetables are finished and this year's are not yet ready."

Contributions for this month's stall may be left at Mrs. Harper's home at 5695 Patricia Bay Highway. Anyone wishing their contributions to be picked up should call GR-4-1750.

Big Drop In Mill Rate Is Looming For Sidney

Ratepayers in Sidney face an unprecedented reduction in the mill rate this year.

Rates in Sidney now stand at 18.5 mills for schools and eight mills for municipal purposes.

This new figure represents a drop of 2.5 mills from last year. Previously the school rate had stood at 21 mills in Sidney.

The drop of 2.5 mills in Sidney exceeds the drop in Central Saanich by 6 mills. The Central Saanich rate fell by 1.9 mills this year and now stands at 17.6 mills for schools and 12.5 mills for municipal purposes.

Health Minister Cites Need For Increased Hospital Beds

—At Rest Haven

Major expansion is looming for Rest Haven Hospital. Announcing the impending need for increased hospital accommodation here, Health Minister Eric Martin on Monday evening gave representatives of the Saanich Peninsula community a broad hint that Sidney, North Saanich and Central Saanich might be invited to organize a hospital improvement district in order to finance the project.

Mr. Martin was guest of honor at a reception in the hospital dining room following his tour of inspection of the North Saanich institution.

The health minister added an appeal of his own to the warning of an impending expansion.

He urged that provision be made in any future plan for the accommodation of patients undergoing psychiatric treatment and for those patients during their convalescence.

In part, the minister attributed to the increased pressure on local hospital facilities to an increased activity in the development of ferry services to the mainland.

He has found, he told his audience, that when the government does something to solve a problem it frequently creates two in its place.

"I know that it is not altogether because of the opening of the ferry system," he observed, "but if you are not already witnessing an era of expansion, you are going to do so, I feel sure, in the near future."

FULL CAPACITY
Rest Haven Hospital has already accommodated 541 patients this year, reported the minister and the hospital has already operated at full capacity on several occasions this year.

"I cannot come here tonight and give you a definite commitment of any kind," he continued, "except that the time is on us, or almost so, when we must determine what the requirements may be."

Mr. Martin explained that an extensive survey will be taken of the Saanich Peninsula.

He hastened to add that even after the survey is completed and the analysis of future needs is projected, the decision will remain with the hospital and the community. The government will not dictate as to when and how the needs are to be fulfilled.

"We will assist you and grants will be paid to you to assist in meeting costs," he promised, "but you will have to make some very important decisions."

He visualized the hospital's being extended in its present situation or the construction of an entirely new hospital on the adjacent property or elsewhere.

The minister then broached the subject of financing the project.

"I suggest you give some consideration to the formation of a hospital improvement district," he said.

WARM PRAISE
The minister expressed a warm commendation of the hospital and its service.

"I want to say to you who have guided the affairs of this hospital for all these years and to those of you newly arrived on the board and to those of you who no longer serve on the board that the government of this province is fully aware of the service you have given and are giving."

The minister was introduced by T. J. Bradley, hospital administrator. He was welcomed by chairman of the Sidney village council, Commissioner A. A. Cormack and Dr. C. H. Hemmings.

"We are fortunate in having an institution such as this in our community," said Commissioner Cormack, "an institution dedicated to the relief of suffering and sickness; and a staff of men and women who command the highest respect throughout the area."

Dr. Hemmings observed that Rest Haven had developed from being a hospital in the community to a community hospital.

A program of musical entertainment was staged during the course of the evening.

Annual Inspection On Monday

When Air Cadets Will Show Their Paces

Members of No. 676 Sidney Squadron, Royal Canadian Air Cadets, will be reviewed by Squadron Leader Brian Crossfield, C.D., at their annual inspection on Monday evening, May 14.

This annual parade is the most important facet of air cadet training. It is upon this yearly inspection and march past that squadrons throughout B.C. and across Canada are graded as to deportment and ability in such activities as drill and band.

The ceremonies on Monday evening will commence at 7.30 p.m. next to the Fairview Aviation Company's hangar, when the squadron will be inspected by S/L Crossfield and B. O. Main, representative of the B.C. committee of the Air Cadet League of Canada. Also on the inspecting group will be the chairman of the Sidney Kinsmen club's sponsoring committee, Hugh Loney.

Following the inspection, the squadron will march past the saluting base under the direction of W.O. 2 Bill Chatterton, Brentwood Bay. At the conclusion of the march past, trophies will be presented to individual cadets for their efficiency and contributions to the squadron.

Displays by the squadron band and a drill squad will be held after trophy presentations. The band will perform various manoeuvres without any word of command. All directions will be given by the bass drum.

For the drill display, a squad of 21 cadets will execute a series of movements under the direction of P/S Douglas Greenwood. This drill squad is the same one which competed successfully with squads from other Vancouver Island squadrons during a recent visit to R.C.A.F. Station Comox.

Visitors and guests will be able to view a static display of other squadron activities in the hall at Patricia Bay Airport. These will include navigation, aero engines, rifle shooting and radio. Also in the hall, refreshments will be served by the mothers' auxiliary.

The annual inspection is the fourth for the local squadron. It is open to the public.

Members of the Gulf Islands will go to the polls this year with the satisfaction of being clearly included in the name of the federal riding. The name was earlier changed by the federal government from Nanaimo to Nanaimo, Cowichan and the Islands.

The voters of Saanich will continue voting as a constituent part of Esquimalt-Saanich federal riding.

Visual landing system at Patricia Bay Airport has been dismantled. The cluster of colored posts at the eastern approach to the runway have lost their brilliant lights as the department of transport prepares for the impending runway extension.

Plans are laid for the closure of Patricia Bay Highway between the airport entrance and Beacon Ave. as soon as provision is made for traffic through Sidney.

Highway diversion from Weiler Ave. to the race track is to be hard surfaced and traffic between Victoria and Swartz Bay will be diverted via Weiler Ave. and the new road or Lochside Drive and Beacon Ave.

Section of the highway diversion south of Weiler Ave. has not yet been prepared for hard-surfacing.

He Has Not Seen Cleaner Hospital Of This Style

Rest Haven is an exemplary institution in the province of British Columbia. Health Minister Eric Martin, making his first tour of the North Saanich hospital on Monday evening, was warm in his praise of the operation.

"I have never seen a cleaner old hospital," he stated. "It is just terrific! It is a real pleasure to go through it and see what I have seen."

The minister also recalled A. G. Rodgers, former administrator at the hospital. "His letters were unique," said Mr. Martin. "They carried a tremendous impact."

School Band Visits Mainland

North Saanich secondary school band journeyed to the mainland on Friday to participate in a massed band concert as guests of the MacPherson Park band in conjunction with the Kelowna band. Reports from the concert indicate that the local band excelled itself under the baton of Stan Magee.

On Saturday, the young bandmen were the guests of their billets and had an opportunity to participate in many activities in and around Vancouver. They returned on Sunday. Mrs. Eagles, band manager, and Mr. Magee accompanied the students.

First Year Sharpshooter Takes Top Award At Range

Junior Marksmanship Shield of the North Saanich Rod and Gun Club has been won by a first-year entry, Barry Cowan.

This season's shoots concluded on Saturday morning at the outdoor range.

This trophy was donated by the recreation commission for annual competition, and is awarded to the junior marksman with "the best shooting record, the best attendance record, and the best conduct on the range" over the season.

The junior club is open to young people, boys and girls, between the ages of 12 and 17, and at present consists of about 20 boys.

The shield was won for the first time last year by John Crane, who has since moved from the district and is reported doing well with the Pacific Coast Rifle Club in Burnaby. Barry Cowan, age 12, is shooting with the North Saanich club in his first year, and has already qualified for both his bronze and silver pins. The trophy winner keeps the shield for a year but also receives an individual cup as a permanent record.

Mrs. M. W. Moore, Third St., has as guests her sister, Mrs. F. D. Webb of Manchester, England, and friend, Mrs. F. Hill, Rhos-on-Sea, North Wales.

On Saturday a special wind-up competition was held for the boys who were handicapped by positions, either kneeling, sitting or prone, and top honors went to Garth Coward with a score of 99. Garth, now in his fourth year with the club, is a consistently good shot, and Doug Jack who instructs the boys, is confident that many of the boys will soon be competing against other clubs.

In connection with the 100th anniversary of St. Stephen's church, Mount Newton, the W.A. will hold its centennial tea and sale of home cooking, books, plants, needlework, centennial booklets and hosty notes, in the parish hall, Mount Newton Cross Road, on Saturday, May 12. The tea will be opened by Mrs. George Parkes at 2.30, and Mrs. Alan Fraser and Mrs. Ray Castle will pour tea. Members serving at the stalls will be in pioneer costume.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troup, of Brentwood, left last Tuesday for Calgary, where they will make their future home. They will stop for a visit with their son at Lillooet for a couple of days on their way.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Poldernan and family, who have been residing on Dignan Road, have now moved to make their home in Victoria.

Dorran To Head Men's Group At Catholic Church

School principal and formerly president of the corresponding society in Prince George, E. J. Dorran, of Brentwood has been named president of the Saanich Holy Name Society. He assumes the office formerly held by Michael vanAdrichem, who left recently for Prince George. Serving with Mr. Dorran are G. W. Peters, vice-president; Frank Sartan, secretary; Peter Vandenaargweg, treasurer and A. Notte, marshal. The new executive was congratulated by Rev. Philip Hanley, spiritual director of the society.

The meeting reviewed the maintenance work which has been undertaken at the two Catholic churches of Saanich. The church of St. Elizabeth in Sidney is undergoing a refurbishing program and the grounds have been extensively cleared to permit of an extended parking area. New drainage tile has been laid around the church, members were informed.

A car park has been prepared at the West Saanich Church of the Assumption and the garden around the building has been further developed under the direction of John Ten Have. In both churches the pews have been modified to provide increased seating accommodation.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Claremont Ave. Student Is Winner Of Oratory Contest

Claremont Ave. student at Royal Oak junior secondary school was the winner of the public speaking contest in Sidney's Knights of Pythias Hall on Tuesday evening last week when five contestants appeared before an enthusiastic audience.

The contest is an annual event sponsored by the Knights of Pythias across the continent.

F. Campbell, chairman of the committee in charge, was introduced by J. D. Pearson. Mr. Campbell was chairman for the evening and outlined the rules of the contest for the contestants and audience. Timekeepers were W. Baillie and K. Mollett.

Each of the five speakers was given 11 minutes to speak on the subject, "My hopes for my country."

First speaker was Selena Kelly, age 15, grade 10 student of Mount Newton junior secondary school and the daughter of Mrs. C. Kelly, 1335 Stellys Cross Road.

Selena dealt with maturity of Canada, dwelling on expansion and governmental growth as well as education standardization. Considerable research had been undertaken in the presentation of her address.

Next speaker, Frances Pugh, age 14, grade 8 student of Mount Newton junior secondary school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Pugh, 965 Wallace Drive, Brentwood.

This speaker referred to progress in science and felt support should be given to the Colombo Plan and NATO, that the country was remiss in not educating Indians and that the natural resources should be fully developed.

Third speaker was Rhys Phillips, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Phillips, 988 Claremont Ave., and a grade 9 student of Royal Oak junior secondary school.

The highlights of this speech were concern for all, desire for peace, freedom maintained and extended and the development of a culture peculiarly Canadian. Above all, he urged, Canadians must learn to develop and maintain a sense of humor.

Kathryn Smethurst, aged 13, grade 8 student at Mount Newton and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Smethurst, Dominion Observatory, stressed the future of Canadian cultural standards and the development of art.

Canada could well become a great nation, enjoying trade relations with all countries of the world and developing her natural resources, she contended.

Final speaker, Roy Mezger, 13 years old, of 155 Durrance Road, Brentwood is a student of Mount Newton school. This youngster had done a great deal of research. His hopes were for world peace, a standard system of education across Canada and a job for every Canadian unemployed; a big problem in Canada, he asserted.

FINAL MEETING HELD BY ST. MARY'S W.A.

Women's Auxiliary to St. Mary's, Saanichton, held their final meeting of the season last Tuesday evening, with 15 members present.

A report on the spring tea was given, when the sum of approximately $160 was realized. A "500" and crib card party is planned for Wednesday, May 23 at 8.15 p.m. in the church hall.

Mrs. Rose Chapman concluded her series from the study book, "Jesus Christ, Light of the World". Mrs. Chapman and her husband were wished a "bon voyage" by the president on behalf of all the members for their trip to the east coast and England, which they left on this week.

Hostesses for the meeting were Ethel Turner and Helen Boutellier. W.A. meetings will resume in September.

REPORTS the ELECTION

Mr. Pearson came to town last week to shake hands and meet people. You know I still can't bring myself to call him "Mike" to his face. To me he is a giant. He may not have the crowd-gathering appeal of a famous comedian or movie star but is that important? What is significant is that those who meet him once come back for more. He is a great man and the job of running the Dominion of Canada is one that requires more than a "Popularity Jack". I am wholeheartedly behind Pearson and I know it is because he is the leader of the Liberals that so many younger people have been attracted to the party. He is that sort of a man. We are now out to help get him to where he can act and speak for Canada and we are not going to rest until we get him there.

I recall last year when Mr. Pearson was out here I spoke privately to him and said I had not always agreed with all the things the Liberals had done in the past and I probably would disagree with some of the things they would do in the future. I hoped he wouldn't mind that since I was going to be a candidate. He laughed and agreed it was impossible for us all to agree all the time and said in the past he had experienced the same difficulty. But the essence of Liberalism is that we are all able to have our say. Then if the party takes a line that differs with ours we have to decide if it is something we can live with while we try to change party policy to a line more in keeping with our own. I can agree with that. Government is no simple matter and for the good of the country as a whole there must be some "give and take" between the individual areas. We cannot expect always to get our own way and as long as I am heard and don't get pushed around I can put up with a lot. The main thing is that any decisions must be for the good of the nation and not for the benefit of just one special group.

HOSPITAL SERVICE

MAKING his first tour of Rest Haven Hospital on Monday evening, Health Minister Eric Martin paid a warm tribute to the administration. While he had inspected almost every hospital in the province, said the minister, he had never seen a cleaner old-type hospital than that in North Saanich.

The tribute to the hospital was accompanied by a note of caution. The health minister also referred at length to the need for increased number of beds here. He observed that the hospital had already been running at full capacity this year and that with an expanding economy in the district the need for more beds was becoming very evident.

The hospital has long been operated here by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. In latter years it has been operated as a community hospital under the terms of the B.C. Hospital Insurance Act. During this time the building and its facilities have been provided out of funds largely contributed by the sponsoring church. Grants towards the provision of equipment have been made by the provincial government, but only as a means of contributing to the costs involved and not as a full, 100 per cent donation.

In its operation, the hospital has been assisted out of the revenue of the hospital insurance service.

Mr. Martin introduced a new line of thought when he suggested that any extension or modification might be launched as a community project and financed out of a hospital district.

Many communities, notably the Gulf Islands, have constructed new hospitals on this basis. The cost of the structure is amortized over a period of years in the same manner as any other community venture.

The Minister introduced an entirely new line of thinking to the community. During the next several months the community will have the opportunity of giving consideration to the proposal.

More hospital accommodation is needed here. That is unquestionably true. How is it destined to be provided?

ROADWORK IN PROGRESS

The past several years have brought an unprecedented awareness of roads to residents of North Saanich. Traffic to the north end of the Peninsula was dislocated for months during the construction of the highway extension to Swartz Bay. For two years drivers have avoided McTavish Road unless its use was essential. The surface was torn up as the road was widened and straightened. Initially, many cars were stuck in the mud. Later it was dust and pot-holes which dismayed the user. Latterly a car became identified with McTavish Road by the gobs of oil which sprayed up from the surface.

Since the commencement of the highway diversion project on Patricia Bay Highway local roads in the village of Sidney have suffered extensively with heavy trucks tearing up the paving, leaving a trail of holes and mud.

Recently a ditch was dug across Patricia Bay Highway alongside the flight track. Traffic on the highway has been faced with the hazard of crossing the trench since it was opened.

Most of these conditions are petty nuisances. Nevertheless, they can all contribute grave hazards to the road user.

McTavish Road might well have been undertaken and completed within a reasonable length of time without prejudicing the use of a main link between east and west for too long a period.

Where a highway, or a minor road, is torn up motorists have every right to expect some warning. On Queens Ave., in Sidney, several months ago a motorist hit an unexpected trench and his car bounced heavily. The driver was thrown from his seat and his hat was forced over his eyes. The car went out of control and was ditched. No serious results ensued, but the accident could have been far more serious had another car or pedestrian been at the scene.

The necessary abuse to highways cannot be condemned. Failure to offer drivers some warning is a case of neglect on the part of the highway authorities. It is a direct contribution to driving hazards and should be curtailed.

Queen Contest And Fashion Show To Include Men's Dress

Big fashion show with girls, ladies, boys and men models, and the annual Queen contest with eight contestants will provide a full evening of entertainment at Sanscha Hall, on Friday, May 18.

Sanscha committee is hoping for a capacity crowd for this event which will provide funds to finance the Queen contest.

For the first time in a local show, clothing and shoes are being supplied by stores out of town as well as in Sidney.

Dancing suits, sportswear, street and dress fashions, and smart play and dress shoes will be featured. Another drawing card is the addition of a male fashion parade, and Alexander-Gane of Sidney are busy choosing smart male attire for boys' and men's models.

Jewelry will come from Martin's Jewellers in Sidney, with hair styling for some of the models provided by Belle's Beauty Salon. Make-up will be by Phyllis Orchard of Beauty Counsellors.

An important part of the evening will be the queen contest, and the eight contestants will appear twice as models and once to speak briefly.

A panel of five judges will meet the girls informally before the show, and the queen and princesses the school.

"Nine Hours to Rama", by Stanley Wolpert. Random House, 376 pp.

In the Royal London Wax Museum of Victoria stands the likeness of a man who became notable around the world, not for his aggressiveness, but for the passive resistance which he preached. He was Mahatma Gandhi. To the youngster, gazing on the statue for the first time, there is nothing to convey the significance of the little man in a loin cloth. Yet while satirized around the world, within his life-time Gandhi became the standard of independence for millions.

The steel spectacles, dhoti and watch lent themselves to the pen of the caricaturist everywhere. Eventually they attracted the bullet of an assassin and the man who had been acclaimed a saint for his opposition to force or aggression died by the weapon he abhorred.

This is the story of his death. The book is a combination of the facts which surrounded his death and fiction woven into the fabric of reality.

Th reader meets the two appointed assassins early in the story. The circumstances which led up to the assassination are offered in the form of a series of flashbacks.

Natu, the revolutionary journalist, hails back to his entry into the secret society originally formed to throw off the yoke of British rule and ultimately developed into an anarchist group. He sees his past life largely in its association with Rani, his mistress.

Every aspect of the life of the Indian people, with their religion, their pursuit of the ways of the British or their animosity to those ways, their love life and their animosities are described.

It is the story of a murder and a particularly cowardly murder as are most assassinations. It is also the story of India as seen by an American professor of Indian history—F.G.R.

Sidney Cadets Gain Third Place In Inter-Squadron Competitions

By BILL CHATTERTON

Air Cadets of No. 676 Sidney Kinsmen Squadron were quite successful in sport, drill and rifle competitions with five other squadrons at R.C.A.F. Station Comox recently. In total points, the local cadets placed third—after the two biggest squadrons on the island, Nanaimo and Victoria.

Both the basketball and volleyball were won by teams from Sidney. They placed second in the sports, following Nanaimo who won the trophy for the highest all-round marks.

To compete in the various events, the cadets travelled to Comox in a drafty "cattle truck" supplied by the Royal Canadian Navy. They left Sidney about 6.30 a.m. on Thursday, and arrived at Station Comox about 11.30 a.m. As soon as they had eaten lunch, sports events commenced in the recreational hall. These continued to after 10 p.m. the last games being the finals for the volleyball and basketball. Sidney played Ladysmith in both these games. The volleyball was very close, the first set won by the local team, 22 to 20. However, they won the second set, 21 to 16, to clinch the victory.

Lights out on Thursday was at 11 p.m. The boys were aroused at 6 a.m. the following day. After turning in bedding, they left for breakfast, which was followed by drill competitions also held in the recreational hall due to the inclement weather. The snow which fell that morning left many uniforms soggy and bedraggled.

After the drill and rifle competitions of the morning, the cadets, who numbered between 350 and 400, were divided into five groups and taken on a tour of the extensive base.

They were shown the new Voodoo interceptor aircraft, the sub-hunting Neptune, as well as photographic and survival departments. In addition, the cadets viewed a movie depicting a patrol of Neptune aircraft and its role in detecting and destroying submarines.

Upon completion of the tour, the cadets assembled in a hangar for a wing parade. This parade was under the direction of WO1 Jim Churchill of Nanaimo. Individual N.C.O.'s were in charge of their own squadrons. The band of the Port Alberni squadron played for the march-past. All the cadets left for their various homes directly after the parade and supper.

In total points, Nanaimo had a substantial lead with a final mark of 74.5. Victoria placed second with a score of 59.7, very closely followed by Sidney with 58.75. Coming last but not undaunted was Port Alberni with 37.5.

"Before the cock crow thou shalt deny me thrice."—Matt. 26:34.

We think of Peter, his warm friendship with Christ, the way he followed Jesus through His earthly ministry, and then when tested he denied even knowing Him.

How shameful! you say. How could he? But don't we deny Him too. Our denial is even worse than Peter's for we know now that Peter didn't fully understand, that Christ could not be held by death.

How often we hear His name spoken in cursing and do we stand up for Him? When someone tells us He was a good man and nothing more do we remind them of scriptures that show His deity, or are we afraid they will think us religious fanatics—are we ashamed of owning His name?

Jesus! and shall it ever be, A mortal man ashamed of Thee? Ashamed of Thee, who angels praise, Whose glories shine thro' endless days!

Weather Hits Hard At Festival

Poor weather conditions greeted the annual Indian sports day, A-Na-Cha-Tay at Tsartlip Indian Reserve, West Saanich, on Sunday afternoon.

While spectators hurriedly donned raincoats in face of a series of showers, canoes were swamped in the squalls which blew over the water.

Highlight of the afternoon was divided between the war canoe races and the display of parachute jumping staged by Victoria Sky Divers. Five parachutists dropped into the Indian village, while the six dived into the water of the bay.

Some 1,500 spectators attended the event to watch the spectacular canoe races. Leonard Paul and his dancers also entertained the public.

The afternoon's events were set in motion by Education Minister L. R. Peterson, who opened the sports, SALMON BAKE Popular centre of attraction throughout the afternoon was the salmon bake, where salmon was barbecued over a wood fire and served with potato salad to visitors.

Squally weather swamped a number of canoes during the afternoon, although the majority recovered their vessels and continued in the races.

Cheminus took the Bishop Hill perpetual trophy in the 11-man war canoe race when Shadow, a regular entrant, skippered by Louis Joseph, made first place. Lady Esther, of Saanich was second and last year's winner, Mermaid, of Galiano, was in third place. The women showed up their menfolk when the Galiano women's team paddled Mermaid into first place in the Cloochman's race. Saanich team, in John Dean, were second in the women's race.

Frances Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Elliott, West Saanich Road, was crowned festival queen during the afternoon.

Maytime Frolic "One Of The Best"

North Saanich high school band was declared the winner of the $50 prize awarded by the Kinsmen Club of Sidney at the Maytime Frolic held last Saturday night in Sanscha Hall.

C. Tyler, who organized the dance for the Kinsmen, said that there was little doubt as to who would win the award since the band "was away out in front" and a clear-cut winner. The award was based upon the number of people representing the organization who attended the dance.

All attending declared the dance to be one of the most pleasant in the history of Sidney. Sanscha Hall had been specially decorated for the event, using cut flowers and streamers to create a spring motif. The music of Charlie Hunt and his orchestra and the entertainment provided by Roly Walsh combined to make the evening a most enjoyable one for those attending.

Mr. Tyler expressed his regret that the number attending and said that it was possible that other events being held in the same week had lowered the number of those who had planned to attend.

Bishop And Mrs. Coleman Host Coffee Party

Bishop and Mrs. M. E. Coleman were hosts last Wednesday morning at their annual coffee party at Windsong, from 10.30 a.m. to 1 p.m. The rooms, bright with spring flowers, were filled with guests from both Penders. Mrs. J. A. Wilson and Mrs. E. Casseday poured. Seven members of St. Richard's Altar Guild, with the Rev. H. V. Emery, came out from Victoria for the occasion, and were joined by members of St. Peter's Altar Guild, who then drove the visitors to both Anglican churches—St. Peter's, and South Pender's Church of the Good Shepherd.

Luncheon was enjoyed on the south island residence of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Spalding, and the visitors returned to Port Washington to board the afternoon ferry.

Lions Club Revue Staged This Week

Salt Spring Island Lions Club will present the third annual revue, "Misguided Adventure," on May 10 at 8 p.m. in Fulford Community Hall. It will be repeated on May 11 and 12 at 8 o'clock, in Mahon Hall, Ganges.

The Turning Point:
UNEMPLOYMENT:
THE LIBERAL ANSWER
by:
J. F. T. Saywell,
LIBERAL CANDIDATE FOR
NANAIMO, COWICHAN AND THE ISLANDS RIDING.

The Liberal Party will set as its prime objective the elimination of the cause of wide-spread unemployment. There will undoubtedly be a few who because of lack of education, seasonal needs and other minor reasons may be temporarily out of work.

To provide more jobs in B.C. the Liberals will increase trade by lowering tariff barriers and finding new markets for B.C. goods. There will be increased aid for renewal projects including slum clearance and building of low rental homes.

The establishment of a loan fund available for improving municipal services and getting construction moving.

Greater assistance will be given to encourage expansion of Vocational training which will provide young people with more skills and keep them off the labor market. A million dollars of scholarships will be provided for B.C. students as well as interest-free loans available for those wishing to continue with their education.

Family allowances will be extended to those remaining in school beyond the age of sixteen.

In areas of chronic unemployment capital grants and intensified winter works programmes will be initiated.

Every effort will be made to get the economy rolling once again and to insure that everyone gets a fair share.

Assistance For Education Is Proffered By Candidate

"There is a third power coming into the world—the nations of the European Common Market," said Jack Saywell, Liberal candidate for Nanaimo, Cowichan and the Islands in the June 18 election. "The combined population of E.C.M. countries is greater than that of Russia or the United States. Britain must join the Common Market. If she doesn't walk in she will fall in," he declared.

Mr. Saywell's address followed the annual meeting of Salt Spring Island Liberal Association held in Mahon Hall, Ganges, May 4. The candidate outlined the Liberal program for pensions, education, and family allowances. Pension system planned by the Liberal party, he said, would be both contributory and portable.

"When you retire your pension will be payable anywhere. It will be your savings," he said.

After the first two years of operation the pension fund would be built up and no longer a tax on the country, said Mr. Saywell.

Speaking on education the Lake Cowichan teacher said the Liberal party will provide $10-million a year for scholarships. British Columbia's quota will be $1-million made up of 1,000 scholarships of $1,000 each.

Mr. Saywell, high school principal at Lake Cowichan, said the cost of sending a student to university in Victoria or Vancouver is $1,400 a year. The Liberal program will meet the problem of outstanding students who are unable to go to college, he said, by providing adequate monthly allowances for tuition and board for good students, by means of long-term, interest-free loans.

The speaker said that under a Liberal government, family allowances would be extended to cover children until the end of high school. Interest-free loans and increased family allowances would also be made available to adults desirous and capable of training for professional or advanced work, he said.

Mr. Saywell gave a brief history of his background, mentioning his experiences as a school principal on the prairies in depression days, when crops sold for 25 cents a bushel; eggs were 6 cents a dozen, and teachers received $200 a year. Because he believes the Liberal party, in spite of its mistakes, has always provided Canada with the kind of government necessary, Mr. Saywell said he agreed to leave a comfortable position, with retirement only two years away, to campaign for "the party that will put Canada back on the road."

Also present at the meeting, chaired by C. R. Hore, were Arthur Cox, Victoria, vice-president of the Vancouver Island Liberal Association, and Ron Fairclough, Liberal party organizer.

Mr. Hore presented the new slate of officers for the local Liberal group: president, W. M. Mount; vice-president, Earl Hardie; sec.-treas., Mrs. C. Devine; executive committee: C. W. Harrison, J. McNulty, W. F. Thorburn, G. S. Humphreys, R. Akerman, E. Gear, Mrs. R. C. Hill, Mrs. Nels Voden.

EDUCATION PROBLEM

Women's Institute Takes Glance Up North

By BEA HAMILTON

At a recent meeting of the National Board of the Federated Women's Institute of Canada, the opening session was presided over by the F.W.I.C. president, Mrs. James Haggerty of Napanee, Ont.

The Hon. Ellen Fairclough, minister of citizenship and immigration, was the speaker one morning. She discussed the changes made recently in legislation governing admissions to this country and time was allowed for a question period following her address.

Among the recommendations presented in reports from national standing committees, were plans for expansion in northern Canada. This would include Indian, Metis and Eskimo women; a study of the final draft for submission to the Royal Commission on Health Service; projects for Canada's Centennial Year; and the publishing of a "Canadian Mosaic"; this to consist of 10 volumes, with the story of crafts in each province.

Advance arrangements were made for the triennial conference of the Associated Country Women of the World, to be held in Melbourne, Australia, in October, 1962. Mrs. Haggerty will be leading the F.W.I.C. delegation.

Deeply interested in the immigration laws and the welfare of our future citizens, and well being of our own natives of the far north, the Federated Women's Institute National Board has long been concerned with the discrimination obtaining in immigration to Canada. Mrs. Fairclough pointed out changes made recently in legislation governing admissions to this country.

Provincial institutes are following with equal interest the deliberations of headquarters, and in the government departments.

As homemakers of our country, every member is ready to extend the hand of friendship to any desirable stranger coming in from a foreign country, who will make a good citizen.

And now comes a tremendous report of hope and enthusiasm from Canada's north country, the Northwest Territories and in the Yukon. The group at Fort Providence has much success with a mixed membership of Indian and white women. The native women are showing how to make parkas, and the members soon hope to find native instructors in making mukluks, native footwear, and some of them are very beautifully beaded on white buckskin. They are something in the way of mossacins, only longer in the leg.

Fort Providence W.I. in the Northwest Territories, is starting a new project, reports the secretary, Mrs. Lamoureux.

A number of natives know no English, which creates a problem among children starting school. First graders have to take two years in grade 1 for that reason. So—what happens? One of the public minded members of the W.I. has offered to teach basic English to a class of first-year five-year-olds for two hours each day.

The principal of the school has promised co-operation and even provided a room for the class. Permission from the education officials at Fort Smith has given them the "go ahead" signal.

The Women's Institute will be sponsoring the class and is going to have to raise money for any equipment that may be needed that the school cannot supply.

Transporting the youngsters is another problem, but the school officials are working on a scheme to see that the young pupils get there.

Makes one feel rather proud to think we have such fine members in our W.I. The kind member who has offered her services, is putting into practical demonstration her "better impulses, straight forward and unafraid. Let us take time for all things: make us grow calm, gentle, serene."

The writer of that collect would be very pleased.

Crocker enjoyed a visit from daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. MacMillan, with Robert and Heather. He has just returned from a three-month training cruise to the Far East, in H.M.C.S. Assiniboine.

L. J. Purdey had his two nephews visiting him from Haney, for several days, Richard Purdey and George Greenwell.

Mr. Horrobin, of Haney, who was a close friend of the late A. Lord, came over and took the entire flock of pigeons. These are very famous ones, and Mr. Horrobin will carry on this strain, for which Mr. Lord won many cups and prizes in the past.

Dr. L. Robinson has returned to his home after a 3½-month cruise to Australia, Tahiti, Fiji and Honolulu, and many other ports.

Fred Cluness and his mother, have returned from a trip to the city.

Brehon Donroche has returned to the home of his uncle, S. Denroche, at Armstrong, where he is attending high school.

Mrs. M. D. Brawn has arrived here to spend some time at her home. She was accompanied by her son, Lieut.-Colonel J. E. Brawn, who also enjoyed a visit with his sister, Mrs. I. P. Denroche, and family.

Mrs. Alrress of St. Louis, Missouri, is paying an extended visit to her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lihou.

Mrs. J. P. Hume went to Victoria

SHUTTERBUGS VIEW SLIDES

At the Gulf Islands Camera Club meeting, on May 4, in St. George's Hall, Ganges, members viewed slides submitted by members, including scenes from Seattle recently to join her sister, Mrs. F. Willis, to welcome another sister, Mrs. C. Hattemore of London, England, who flew out to visit for some time. The three ladies came over to Galiano for a visit and then will go to Vancouver. It is the first time Mrs. Hume has seen Mrs. Hattemore for 43 years, so the reunion is a very happy one.

Spending a day recently in Victoria were: Mr. and Mrs. I. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kolosoff, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. J. F. Jones, Mrs. B. J. MacLennan, Mrs. M. E. Backlund, H. T. Dyer and T. J. Head.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Page had a short visit to Victoria recently.

Read Hayden, of Seattle, came over for the week-end to his place at Wise Island.

Mrs. J. Pattison came to her Galiano home on Friday morning suffering from a severe cold and loss of voice.

W. Stafford came over to visit his father, Jack Stafford, "Salishan", and was accompanied by friends from Squaw Valley, Utah, U.S.A., Mr. and Mrs. N. McKinnon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Robson paid a short visit to Victoria, returning Sunday. Driving down the Sunshine Coast, getting on and off four ferries, to pay a brief visit to Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, of the North Galiano Store, came J. Dunstann, of Powell River.

Miss Enid Sealey, of Victoria, spent the week-end at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Burton, of Vancouver, spent the week-end at their summer place.

Tell Them . . . It Was In The Review!

"Nothing Old Hat about our house this spring!"

Bright and shiny, like a new spring bonnet—that's how our house looks these days. We've had it "done" all over and now the Joneses are keeping up with us. The cost? Well—much less than you'd think. We financed the "works" with a B of M Home Improvement Loan.

That's how you can get your home improvements done at lower cost. Talk to the people at your neighbourhood B of M branch soon—they'll be glad to tell you all about it.

LIFE of the PARTY

CHARLIE ALWAYS REMEMBERS

Depend on Charlie never to forget, even when his firm suddenly makes him fly up to Prince George on the very weekend we're celebrating a birthday. And sure enough, it was the long distance call he made that eventually got the party mood going. Charlie is always the life and soul of a party - and how he hates to miss one! As long as he can reach a telephone, bless him, he very rarely does.

After 9 p.m. each evening (and all day Sunday) long distance rates drop by about one quarter. Vancouver to Kamloops, for example, can cost as little as $1.05.

Why don't YOU phone somebody near or dear tonight, when long distance calls are cheapest?

PARENTS AND FRIENDS ENJOY FAMILY NIGHT

Family night was held recently in St. Paul's United Church Hall when the staff of the Sunday school and pupils entertained parents and friends.

The program arranged by Mrs. W. Kynaston, Mrs. L. Brooke and Mrs. H. Loney led off with a flower parade and flag parade by the primary department. Each lady present received a small bouquet while the gentlemen received a boutonniere. Spring Time in North Saanich was sung by the Douma sisters assisted by the guests.

Piano selections were given by Gayle Clarke, Mary Lee Burrows, Joyce Gardner and Lynn Reimer. Songs were rendered by Marlon Smith and Donna Breadman.

"Black Magic" was performed by David and Robert McLeellan and Kenneth Campbell. A quartette by the Sharrock children was enjoyed as was a trio by Judy Pettigrew, Cathie and Carla Larson.

The older students performed a Scottish dance while the intermediate boys entertained with hockey—the Daffodils versus Tulips.

Mrs. Whitmore addressed the gathering followed by community singing. Refreshments were served by the Sunday school staff.

VOLUNTEERS TO PAINT ISLAND CHURCH OF ST. MARGARET

A meeting of St. Margaret's Parish, at Galiano, was held on Friday night, May 4, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Hepburn. Rev. B. A. J. Cowan was in the chair.

The meeting opened with prayer. It was decided that a new vestment cupboard will be built in the vestry. Thanks were given to R.

J. Rose Colby tells that the essay is used by an author "for the direct confession of his beliefs, doubts, loves, hates, prejudices, whims, superstitions, vanities, for his questionings of the meanings of things, his answers to his own questions, his ignorance, his vision of truth."

Lihou for erecting the large cross on the church, and also to W. R. Cottrell for making a much-needed intercession box, to be put in the church.

After some discussion, it was decided to hold the meetings every second month.

Beginning in June, the evening service will be held at 7.30 p.m.

The outside of the church is to be spray-painted by volunteers.

Missionary representative, Mrs. I. Murphy, reported that the sum of $13.25 was collected, and will be sent to the Primate's World Relief Fund. After the closing prayer, Mrs. Hepburn served refreshments.

Progress
"up in the air"

You can call a halt to progress any time — even "up in the air". The quickest way, for both individuals and business is to stop planning for the future — or not to have the ability to plan for any future.

In essence, the principle of fire, automobile and casualty insurance is that it is a plan for the future. It ensures progress by banding people together to share the expected losses of the few among the many. Because it allows people to "average out" their chances of a completely crushing loss into a relatively small fixed expense, insurance enables them to move ahead on a planned basis.

The fact that Canada's fire, automobile and casualty insurance companies are paying out more than a million and a half dollars every day this year in claims indicates that prudent Canadians make safe plans for their future.

Life Membership Presented To Past President Of Group

Highlight of the recent annual meeting of the Peninsula Players held at the home of Mrs. William Beswick, Dencross Terrace, was the presentation of a life membership in the drama group to the past president, Ailsa Rothery, who is presently in hospital. The life membership was in recognition of all she has done to encourage local drama, both as an officer and director.

—At Annual Meeting

Vice-president Dick Chudley was in the chair for the meeting, and before opening the regular business meeting, he presented the hostess, Mrs. Beswick with a flowering plant, and gave her the heartfelt thanks of all the members for her kindness in lending her rumpus-room to the group for meetings and rehearsals.

New slate of officers for the coming year elected at the annual meeting is as follows: president, Dick Chudley; vice-president, Charles Swannell; secretary, Florence Smith; treasurer, Pat Montgomery; committe, Joan Henriksen, Herb Drew and Joe Fenton.

In his closing message, the new president stressed the need for behind-the-scenes workers in the group, and urged all members present to encourage people to join who were interested in learning stage lighting and scenery construction, as these would be particularly welcome.

After adjournment, refreshments were served, and Nell Horth showed slides of scenes from the recent play, as well as some of former productions.

Have You Thought About Trading Your Refrigerator For An Up-to-Date Model?

If your refrigerator is an older model, it's perhaps not keeping up with your family's needs. Why not have your appliance dealer show you the new models that are available?

Today's new Refrigerators offer:

- Larger interior food storage capacity (without being larger in size).
- Greater in-the-door storage capacity
- Shelf space that is better planned and more flexible
- Automatic defrosting in many models

REFRIGERATOR-FREEZER COMBINATION IS POPULAR CHOICE

For families who do not need a full-size freezer, a refrigerator with zero zone compartment is ideal. This provides the same advantages as a freezer—allows foods to be frozen quickly, and will keep frozen foods for long-term storage.

See your appliance dealer about trading your old refrigerator for a more efficient, more convenient up-to-date model.

Sidney Girl Married In California

A very quiet wedding was solemnized in the chapel of the First Lutheran Church in Glen-dale, California, recently.

The bride was Ethel Laverne Jahn, R.N., formerly of Sidney, and the groom was Welton Eugene Woods of Los Angeles.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Nisely. The couple were attended by Helen and George Watson, aunt and uncle of the bride.

For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of white poi de soie with short chapel veil. Mrs. Watson wore soft blue lace. Both the bride and her attendant carried orchids.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Jahn of 2090 Beacon Ave., Sidney, and the bride's aunt, Mrs. Lillian Spelliscy of Burnaby, B.C., were present for the marriage.

The young couple are making their home in Glendale.

Highlight of the art show in Hotel Sidney at the week-end under the sponsorship of the Saanich Peninsula Art Centre was the demonstration of papier mache work by Mrs. E. F. Meas. She is seen here displaying one of her products, a particularly ferocious-looking puppet.

Art Show Draws Capacity Entries And Visitors Here

After a steady growth in popu-larity over the past years the ninth annual art show of Saanich Penin-sula Art Centre in Sidney Hotel on Saturday and Sunday nearly over-flowed its accommodation.

The event was highly successful from the viewpoint of both the spon-sors and the public. A steady flow of visitors was maintained on both days of the showing.

Funds raised from the art show are devoted to the provision of scholarships for local students who seek to pursue art studies.

Many facets of art were display-ed, ranging from paintings, in both water colors and oils, through handicrafts to the novel papier mache work displayed by Mrs. E. F. Meas. Displays of pottery were placed about the tables to complement paintings and other exhibits.

Feature of the exhibition was the large number of entries from com-munities all over Vancouver Island, from the Victoria Sketch Club to the Alberni art group.

Committee in charge of the show was Mrs. A. D. J. Pitts, assisted by A. W. Smith, F. Fowler, S. Stod-art, F. Stevens and the club presi-dent, Mrs. F. Eves.

TIMELY TRAVEL TIP CAN SAVE WORRY—MONEY, TO

It can be mighty embarrassing when you run short of ready cash while travelling. Yet no one likes to carry around large sums of cash because there's always the danger of loss or theft.

What's the answer then, on your next vacation or business trip?

More and more people are find-ing the easiest and safest way to carry funds for travel purposes today is in the form of B of M travellers cheques. Any bank in Canada and most hotels and stores will cash them readily—because you countersign each cheque only when you cash it.

Thus the person cashing it knows right away that you and only you are the rightful owner. This feature makes B of M trav-ellers cheques useless to everyone except their purchaser. What's more, if your B of M travellers cheques are lost, destroyed, or stolen, the bank replaces them.

So before you set off on that next trip, stop at the Sidney branch of the Bank of Montreal and buy as many travellers cheques as you think you'll need. The service charge is negligible and the peace of mind is wonderful.

Frank Daugherty, the account-ant, or any member of the staff will be glad to help you make any other arrangements for your travel financing. If your trip is an extra long one and you need a large sum, travellers letters of credit are available from the B of M, and if you are going abroad, there are special travellers cheques available at every branch.
